SRF YOKOSUKA VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

Required Level of English: ☐ Very Little ☐ Beginner ☐ Intermediate ☒ Advanced ☐ Highly Advanced

1. Announcement No.		2. Area of Consideration	3. Number Required
23-SRF-10-02	MLC	Current USFJ Employees and Off-Base applicants	1

4. Job Title ☒ Administrative ☐ Blue Collar Trade

Engineering Technician (Naval Architect), #384

Job No.: 384 Grade: 1-6 LAD: 3

5. Closing Date
1st Cut off date: 7 Nov 2001
2nd Cut off date: Until Filled

6. Type of Employment
Trial Period/ Permanent

7. Activity *Working Place: Yokosuka, Tomari-cho

U. S. Naval Ship Repair Facility, Yokosuka
Planning Department (C-200)
Design Division (C-240)
Naval Architect Branch (C-250) Structural Section (C-250.1)

8. Work Schedule
40 hours work week ☒ Regular ☐ Irregular
Working Days: Mon - Fri
Night Shift: ☐ Yes ☒ No
Working Hours: 0800 - 1645

9. Duties

1. Plans and develops detailed design and working drawings, sketched, notes, etc., applying scientific and engineering principles. Work is primarily concerned with hull structural systems design and weight and moment analysis by reference to/and application of plans, specification, blueprints, manuals, etc., and by ship checks to clarify additional technical requirements and problem.
2. Performs ship checks to obtain information on all the phases of assigned Design Service Request (DSR) or job order tasking. Checks ship's structural systems for existing conditions with regard to technical requirements and assigned maintenance, repair or modernization tasking. Takes measurements and makes necessary sketches and notes. Discusses tasking with ship's officers to verify ship's requirements or to suggest alternative plans.
3. Makes contacts with shop personnel and ship officers during the progress of work and discusses and/or resolves problems arising from engineering/practical standpoints. Confers with technicians and engineers of other branches for integrating ideas for multidisciplinary projects to work out the best engineering solution with respect to related structures and systems.
4. Performs other related or incidental duties as assigned.

PD No. : SRF-250.1-002

10. Qualification (Education, License, Experience)/Physical Requirements

1. A graduate of technical college/university (majoring in Naval Architecture) or its equivalent.
2. Must have three or more years of experience as a naval architectural designer.
3. Must have a good knowledge of English in reading, writing, and speaking.

* A handicapped applicant may be accepted, depending upon the degree and kind of disability.
* A potentially qualified applicant may be accepted as a trainee.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

THINGS TO SUBMIT

☒ Application for Job Opening
☒ Resume of Professional Work Experience
☒ Applicant Data for those who seek White Collar Positions
☒ Self addressed envelope (zip code, address, name) with 90-yen stamp
☒ SRF Employee: SRF FORM 12330-1(Rev. 10/88) and Resume of Professional Work Experience
☒ Personnel History Statement (USFJ Form 196aEJ)
☒ Applicant Data
☐ Copy of License
☐ Other _____

PLACE TO SUBMIT THE ABOVE

Current Employees: Send or bring your application package to SRF Management Office (Code 840), Bldg. 2046 5F
Off base applicants: Bring application package to HRO Gate Office (Monday-Friday, 1000-1500)

POINT OF CONTACT

SRF Management Division Code 840 Extension 243-4552(4553), Ms. Takano / (Ms. Satomi)